YOUTH & LEADERS SUMMIT 2023

ABOUT THIS EVENT

16 January 2023 from 10:00 until 19:00

THE WORLD AT CROSSROADS: EXISTENTIAL RISKS TO THE GLOBAL ORDER

Monday 16 January 2023, 9:00 am to 6:00 pm, at Sciences Po, Paris campus

#YLSummitPSIA

ABOUT THE TOPIC

The current international order is at crossroads. Major stress comes from climate change, more assertive authoritarian regimes, nuclear threats, important technological advances and increased economic inequalities.

Through panel discussions and keynote lectures, the 8th edition of the Summit will explore the most pressing issues in the world today, including risks to our global security, economic fragmentation, backsliding on the energy transition, the health of our ocean, and the challenge of using technology for good.

ABOUT REGISTRATION

REGISTRATION FOR THE SUMMIT

The Summit is open to PSIA students as well as to the whole Sciences Po community. Anyone can register to attend the major sessions during the day. Please note the Summit will take place in-person on Sciences Po's Paris campus.

EXTERNAL GUESTS REGISTRATION FOR THE SUMMIT

The summit is open for the external guests as well. However, please note that registration for external guests is subject to availability.

REGISTRATION FOR BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Breakout sessions will take place immediately after each panel

Breakout sessions will take place immediately after each panel discussion. They are available exclusively to PSIA students, to give you the chance to exchange informally with one of the panelists in a small group setting. Because the number of seats is limited, a random draw will be conducted to select student participants.

ABOUT STUDENT INVOLVEMENT

Student participation is at the very heart of the Summit, from conceptualization to the organization and implementation of the event. A number of PSIA students have been selected to participate as volunteers in various roles: student speakers, panel presenters, journalists, community managers, as well as artists. In addition a student advisory board works with the PSIA team to ensure that the event is designed to maximize student participation and engagement.
